Dear Ms. McHugh et al:

I would appreciate it if you could get for me copies of the following three articles:

→05-019164

#691067 K. R. White, Psychol. Bull. 86, 461 (1982)

(wants the entire articles, not just one page)

#691068 K. J. Hayes, Psychol. Rep. 10, 299 (1962)
MtBC, at MtU, Wa, WaPlP → 56-000405

#691070 S. Scarr and K. McCartney, Child Dev. 54, 424 (1983).
e 34-000503 @ MtBC, MtBiE, MtU, MtHaN, MtBiIR

I have given these references in exactly the same form in which they appear in an article published in Science. I assume that the references follow some standard form used by psychologists in citing articles. I think they are to be interpreted inthe following way: In the first reference, Psychol. Bull. is an abbreviation for the name of the journal in which the article appears, 86 is the volume number, 461 is the page number, and 1982 is the date, so that the full reference should read (I think): K. R. White, Psychological Bulletin, Volume 86, page 461, published in 1982. (But I'd like to have a copy of the entire article, not just the one page.) And the other references would be interpreted similarly. I'd guess that Psychol. Rep. might mean Psychological Reports and that Child Dev. might mean Child Development. I hope these abbreviated references won't cause you any problems.

Thank you very much for your help.

Sincerely yours,

Ted Kaczynski
